

GRADUATION DAY FOR OUR SECOND BATCH OF INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

The Law School is extremely proud to announce that on 18 January 2018, fifteen students from the classes of 14C and 13Q graduated. Four years of hard work paid off, and they are now holders of Bachelor Degrees in International Law from our institution.

The main ceremony was hosted by the College of International Education. Our very own Rubina Uprety was invited to address the entire congregation. Rubina, from Nepal, won the highly coveted Ministry of Education Outstanding Foreign Student Scholarship for three years of her time with us.

Rubina's address

ZJGSU Vice-President Dai Wenzhan with Rubina and her family

Senior academics such as ZIGSU Vice-President Dai Wenzhan congratulated the fresh graduates on their hard work, and shared some final words of wisdom with they stepped out to take on their next challenges in life.

Prior to the main ceremony, the Law School hosted a small reception for the graduating students. Vice-Dean, Professor Song Jie, gave a short speech encouraging the graduating students to continue to learn and grow in their craft, ultimately coming back one day to mentor other young aspiring lawyers. Professor Han Ning, the Head of the International Students Office, inspired them to take hold of the supreme education they received and apply themselves to the fullest as they embark on their careers. The ceremony concluded with Professor Song presenting souvenirs to all the graduates, and a buffet of snacks and refreshments.

Professor Song addressing the gathering

The soon-to-be-graduates with friends, family and Professor Song, Professor Han and Ms. Tian Fengli

We sincerely wish our graduates all the very best, and we look forward to staying in touch and watching how they progress in life!