

ZJGSU INTERNATIONAL LAW PROFESSORS JUDGE THE 2017 CHINA INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT MOOTS IN BEIJING

Professor Dr Song Jie, Vice-Dean of the Law School, and Professor Dr Suzannah Linton, Distinguished Professor in the International Law Department of the Law School, were invited to judge the China International Criminal Court Moots in Beijing on 11 and 12 March 2017. This was held at the campus of the China University of Political Science and Law in Changping.

Profs Linton and Song with Judge Liu

The two ZJGSU professors were joined by colleagues from other leading universities in China and abroad, representatives of the International Committee of the Red Cross, lawyers working with international courts, tribunals and arbitration centres, and other experts in International Criminal Law.

Judges' Group Photo

The Final Round of the Competition

Professor Linton had the privilege of judging the Final Round with Hon Justice Liu Daqun, Vice-President of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and Mr Jacob Clark of the Paul Tsai China Centre, Yale Law School.

The Award Ceremony

The three highest scoring teams will now be travelling to The Hague to moot in the International Criminal Court itself.